

Certificate III In Information Technology (General) ICA30299

A qualification will be issued based on successful assessment of all the core units of competency and any four elective units, two of which can be drawn from any other nationally endorsed Training Packages, including competencies from equivalent qualification levels within this Training package.

CORE UNITS
ICAITU019B Migrate to new technology	ICAITD128A Create user & technical documentation
ICAITS024B Provide basic system administration	ICAITS031B Provide advice to clients
ICAITS025B Run standard diagnostic tests	ICAITU126A Use advanced features of computer applications
ICAITS115A Maintain equipment & software in working order	ICAITS032B Provide network systems administration
ICAITS021B Connect internal hardware components	ICAITS020B Install and optimise system software
ICAITU018B Develop macros and templates for clients using standard products

Electives: Choose any four units, two of which can be drawn from any other nationally endorsed Training Packages. Please refer to the section on customisation of qualifications.

ELECTIVE UNITS
ICAITS029B Install network hardware to a network	ICAITI100A Build an internet infrastructure
ICAITU028B Customise packaged software applications for clients	ICAITD030B Install software to networked computers
ICAITI101A Install and manage network protocols	ICAITS117A Maintain custom software
PMX401A Apply skills in project integration	ICAITS121A Administer network peripherals
ICAITS034B Determine and action network problems	ICAITS023B Provide one to one instruction
ICAITS116A Undertake capacity planning	ICAITB060A Identify physical database requirements
ICAITI1097A Install and configure a network	ICAITU127A Operate system software

NOTE: It is suggested but NOT mandatory that, before commencing, students should have successfully achieved the 11 core units from the Cert II in IT. The Core units are: ICAITTW001B; ICAITTW002B; ICAITU004B; ICAITU005B; ICAITU006B; ICAITU007B; ICAITU012B; ICAITU013B; ICAITS014B; ICAITS015B; and ICAITS017B.